About Vålerenga Fotball AS

Vålerenga is a proud club with a proud history! It began with its founding in a cabinetmaker's workshop on Vålerenggata, continued through the bohemian era and the league title of the 1960s, then into the era of the "new bohemians" and all the victories of the 1980s.

In the 1990s, the club and the supporters' group Klanen took a historic stand against racism. In Europe, the club enjoyed success with matches against Chelsea F.C., Beşiktaş J.K., and Newcastle United F.C. among its proudest highlights.

In 2005, we won what remains our most recent league championship and celebrated together with tens of thousands of supporters outside Oslo town hall. In 2008, we claimed what remains our most recent Norwegian Cup title, with two local lads scoring our goals.

In the autumn of 2017, Vålerenga moved into Intility Arena, and by securing the bronze medal in the 2020 league season, our men's team earned its first league medal in its new home.
